

Please do not allow weakening of Indiana's Telephone Privacy law. It has made a huge difference in the peacefulness of our home. Prior to enactment of the privacy law, our phone rang off the hook all evening with all sorts of sales calls. Now it is quiet and we can enjoy family life without constantly being disturbed by telephone intruders.